12 Apostles

McLaren Vale & Fleurieu Peninsula

Great Ocean Road Touring Route

5 Days/ 4 Nights.....From US$573 Per Person (Tourist Superior)
From US$752 Per Person (First Class)

Day 1 Melbourne via the Great Ocean Road to Apollo Bay (185Km)

Travel south of Melbourne to the township of Geelong. Continue along the surf coast passing through Torquay and Bell's Beach which features on the World Championship Surfing Calendar. This area boasts some of the best surf beaches in Australia. Further on are the fishing villages and holiday resorts of Anglesea, Lorne and Apollo Bay. You may like to visit Melba Gully and journey into the rainforest to view the spectacular Glowworms after dark.

Overnight: Apollo Bay

Day 2 Apollo Bay via the Great Ocean Road to Port Fairy (194 Km)

Your journey along The Great Ocean Road is breathtaking. The landscape is diverse from the rainforest area of Otway Ranges to the coast. The sea has carved spectacular shapes from the limestone cliffs, which today stand majestically in the ocean. The most photographed is the Twelve Apostles and the Loch Ard Gorge; continue along to the Bay of Islands. This evening will be spent in Port Fairy. Port Fairy is steeped in history and charm, this culture and architecture have been beautifully preserved. At the mouth of the Moyne River, you can enjoy Port Fairy's range of restaurants and cafes, local art and craft, festivals, local seafood and quaint village atmosphere.

Overnight: Port Fairy

Day 3 Port Fairy via Mt Gambier to Robe (287 Km)

Depart Port Fairy and following the coastline. Cross the border into South Australia. This area forms part of the largest volcanic plain in Australia. A large fishing industry supplies both local and interstate markets with prize catches of lobster and scale fish.

The South East will reveal an incredible diversity of natural features; rugged coastline and wide sandy beaches; lush wetland areas, pine forests and vineyards. Many fascinating, subterranean caves and intriguing sinkholes are open to visitors. Volcanic lakes and craters provide a focal point in the Mount Gambier district. The area also incorporates the Coonawarra and Pathway wine growing districts, producing some of Australia's finest table wines.

Spend some time exploring Mt Gambier the 'Blue Lake City' before travelling to the seaside town of Robe. Robe was once an important port, exporting wool and horses and the major arrival for thousand of Chinese people on their way to the Victorian Goldfields during the Gold Rush. The area is now a popular Seaside Resort.

Overnight: Robe

Day 4 Robe to Adelaide (330 Km)

Make your way along the South East Coast, through the internationally significant wetland areas of the Coorong. Cross the Murray River before driving into Adelaide. Or you may wish to make a detour through the Boutique Wine Trail encompassing "Fleurieu Peninsula" on through McLaren Vale.

Overnight Adelaide
